

Feeling Furry

Inside these boxes are four animal pelts from wild animals you can see in Scotland. Stick your hand in each box, have a feel and try to work out which animal the pelts come from.

Hint!

Think about the size of pelt and feel for something obvious like a tail.

Feeling Furry

Animal furs are also called pelts. Inside these boxes are 4 pelts taken from wild animals that you can see in Scotland.

Feel the pelt inside each box. Try to work out which animal each pelt comes from.

Hint: think about the size of the pelt, is it taken from a large or small animal, and feel for something obvious like a tail.
